TALK OF THE TOWN

Ethel Barrymore in "An American Widow," Metro feature, Bijou to-day.

Several Barre people motored to the Savery farm, between Williamstown and Northfield, this afternoon to witness an old fashioned barn raising.

Not all of the war chest contributions have been reported at the Church street headquarters, but the committee and its clerical force has well under way the work of aggregating the pledges thus far received, thus making it possible to announce just how much money was subscribed in the past two weeks and how many cards were filled out and returned to the canvassers. It is not a staggering task, but it is work which requires time, and another day will probably elapse before the committee is ready to announce its figures. Enough progress has been made to convince the campaign committee that the subscription in toto will approach $50,000.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Jane Grey in "The Test," a Pathe feature, Bijou to-morrow.—adv.

Mrs. Antoinetta Movalli and daughter of Bassett street are planning to leave Barre in the near future for Buffalo, N. Y., to reside. They will accompany to that city the former's son, Americo Movalli, who was called here by the illness and death of his sister.

The general fund of the Barre Red Cross received a tidy acquisition to-day when the manager of the Barre baseball team turned over to the president, V. E. Ayers, the sum of $50.25, representing the proceeds of a baseball game recently staged at Inter-city park. The game was arranged for the express purpose of swelling the Red Cross fund, and while several men in the line-up are players who are accustomed to receiving salaries, they generously donated their share of the proceeds to war charity. The Red Cross is deeply grateful to the players.

Summer Suits!

Miss Margaret Bascum has returned to her home in St. Albans, after passing a few days with friends in the city.

John Pickering of Trow hill was a visitor in the city this morning, while on his way to Enosburg Falls for a visit with friends.

B. H. Tenney of Washington street, who is taking a vacation from his duties in the F. D. Ladd Co.'s store, has been visiting relatives in Rutland county.

Seaman Edward Lambert, who has been passing a furlough at his home on Seminary street, has returned to an Atlantic port to rejoin his shipmates.

Mrs. Frank J. Nutting, who has been passing several days with her mother, Mrs. Leona Pitkin of Jefferson street, has returned to her home in Brandon.

A tempting display of Paige & Shaw chocolates and bonbons, freshly received for your approval. A good line of Apollo chocolates, as well, Barre Candy Kitchen.

The evening classes in surgical dressings work of the Red Cross will resume their work this evening at their new work rooms in the Church street school-house.

David T. Montague of Boston, a graduate of Goddard seminary in the class of '86, has been appointed a member of the city licensing board by Governor McCall of the Bay state.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cady of Chelsea and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Boatwick of Williamstown were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wheeler of the Merchant street extension last Saturday.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of A. A. Sargent last night, in honor of Miss Olive Belanger, who is soon to leave Barre and take up her residence in New York. During the evening games and dancing were enjoyed by all.

The Red Cross sewing rooms will be open Wednesday at the Church street school building at 2 p. m. for work and also on Friday, the regular sewing day.

Beginning next week, the rooms will be open at 2 p. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. This is necessary in order to complete the large quota for the month of June. Your presence on any or all of these days will be much appreciated.

Miss Beatrice Callaghan and Miss Gladys Bradford entertained last evening in honor of Miss Elizabeth Carson, a teacher in the North Barre school, who is leaving the city Friday to make her home in Montreal, P. Q. There was a movie party for a number of young women and later an enjoyable time was passed at Miss Callaghan's home on Park street.

Hector Farnham, who has been receiving treatment at the City hospital for injuries received in an automobile accident on the Williamstown road ten days ago, has so far recovered as to be able to return to his home in Montpelier.

The young man's head will be bandaged for a few days, but no untoward results are expected to develop from his injuries.

A Times story telling of the disappearance of E. B. Jackson, an aged Washington street man, was instrumental in solving the mystery. A Graniteville reader who visited his hospitality on an elderly traveler who called at his door Sunday, upon learning the story communicated with Mr. and Mrs. George Annas, with whom Mr. Jackson resides, and when notes had been compared, the whereabouts of the missing man was definitely determined last evening.

Among the guests arriving at Hotel Barre last night and this morning were the following people: Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Farrar of Rutland, E. E. Andrews of Norway, Mr. Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Clapham and Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Butts of Erie, Pa., Dr. C. H. Beecher of Burlington, Horace Powers of Morrisville, A. A. Ashley of Milton, J. H. Sanford of Tilton, N. H., B. U. Wells of St. Johnsbury, F. R. Simpson of Glens Falls, N. Y., D. K. Beaton of Detroit, Mich., A. H. Chapman of Portland, Me., Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rust of Keene, N. H., R. W. Heath of Woodsville, N. H.

With graduation exercises for some thirty members of the commercial department this evening, Goddard's commencement week activities are getting well under way. The commercial students will carry out their program in the school chapel, and the address is to be given by Rev. Edgar Crossland. On Wednesday evening there will be a concert by the musical department. Class day exercises and the prize speaking contest are to feature Thursday's program, and Friday will be given over entirely to the alumni and the graduates of the academic department. Diplomas for the 1918 graduates are to be awarded at exercises in the forenoon, and the alumni is to meet in the afternoon. There will be a reception in the evening.

PLAINFIELD

We, the undersigned, promise to close and lock our store promptly at 7 o'clock on Monday and Friday nights, 6 o'clock on Wednesday night, and 9 o'clock on Tuesday and Thursday nights, beginning Monday, June 24, 1918.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See those new thin smocks and middies at Abbott's.

John O'Keefe of Upland avenue returned to the city yesterday from Hartford, where he spent the week end with friends and relatives.

Miss McMahon and sister of Springfield, Mass., are spending a visit of a few days at the home of their brother, John McMahon, of East street.

Edward Jackson of the naval training school at Newport, R. I., is passing a furlough with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Joe W. Jackson of South Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Reid of Hartford, Conn., are spending a visit of a few days with friends in the city. Mrs. Reid was a former resident of this city.

Miss Isabelle Mackie, who has been visiting in St. Johnsbury, has returned to the city to pass the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Mackie of Beacon street.

Tony Bianchi of Summer street left the city this forenoon for a business visit of a few days in New York City in the interests of the Charles Bianchi granite concern.

Miss Mary Tomasi, who has been engaged as a teacher at the Swanton schools during the past year, arrived in the city yesterday to spend the summer months at her home on North Main street.

Mrs. William Rees left the city Saturday for Franklin, N. H., where she will make a visit of several days at her former home. She was accompanied to Franklin by her mother, who has been spending the past few days in the city.

Miss Rose Tomasi arrived in the city yesterday from Northampton, Mass., where she has been enrolled during the past year as a student at Smith college, to spend the summer months at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sanguinetti, of North Main street.

The office of the Barre Red Cross, through which war workers in a number of nearby villages are making their victory offerings of sweaters, socks, helmets, etc., was notified this morning that a baseball game will be staged in Graniteville to-morrow for the benefit of the Red Cross.

A jury was drawn in municipal court today for a trial to-morrow in the case of State vs. Gomez. The case grows out of a liquor seizure in upper Graniteville last week, and the respondent is charged with keeping illegally. He is represented by A. A. Sargent. State's Atty. Earle R. Davis will conduct the prosecution.

John R. Wilson of Worcester, secretary of the Washington County Veterans' association, was in the city yesterday to complete arrangements with local G. A. R. men and other patriotic societies for the annual reunion to be held at Dewey park next week. It is planned to have the yearly reunion program finished by the end of the week so that many of those who customarily attend may return to their homes in time to assist in the laying.

The masonry and art embroidery store, conducted for the past few months by Mrs. Bertha A. Beattie and Mrs. Lillian A. Duncan in the apartment north of the Miles granite building has been sold to Mrs. Duncan, the partners having reached a dissolution agreement. Mrs. Beattie, who retires from the business, takes this opportunity to thank her many friends for their liberal patronage during her connection with the establishment. She expects to leave shortly for the White mountains to assume personal charge of her store at Bethlehem.

Two Barre and Montpelier attorneys who are wearing crepe over their right eyes were cleared of any lurking suspicion that the optics were draped in a personal encounter at the beginning of a jury trial in Magistrate H. W. Scott's court this morning. In the case of Cano vs. street railway, Atty. F. E. Gleason, in addressing the jury, lightly referred to the fact that counsel on both sides were squinting through artificially colored eyes, but assured his auditors that counsel in the case had not come to blows.

The other attorney, Earle R. Davis, sustained an accident while cranking an automobile. His eye is on the mend. Mr. Gleason, whose eye has been partially relieved of discoloration, was injured while working in the greenhouse at his home in Montpelier. Members of the jury snickered audibly when the lawyer explained the situation.

Alumni of Goddard seminary, especially members of the "20-year class" of 1898, will be gladdened by a sight of the current number of the Goddard Record. It is given over almost wholly to the doings of the alumni, and at the pressing request of the editor a number of old grads, have written letters for publication. Among those of the class of '98 who responded are: Frederick H. Cole of St. Albans, Marie G. Burroughs Warner of Vergennes, Irene B. Thurston of Barre, Mrs. Henry E. Shipman of Brattleboro, Mrs. L. D. Gale of Williamstown. Two Goddard doctors are in the service, Dr. Frank Piper, '85, and Dr. J. R. White, '05, and each contributes an interesting letter. "Alumni Notes" is an unusually strong feature of the current issue, which is the next to the last to be issued by the present board. The June number will be descriptive of commencement.

EAST BARRE

Mrs. Fred Lord and son, Harold, and Mrs. Alex. Cameron were business visitors in the city to-day.

Elmer Owen and family of Montgomery visited friends and relatives here Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Ella Brink. They started Monday morning for Boston in Mr. Owen's seven-passenger Overland to spend a week in Boston and vicinity.

THE UNION DRY GOODS COMPANY

TALK OF THE TOWN

Roy McDonald of Bassett street left the city this morning for Pelham Bay, N. Y., to report for duty at the naval training station.

Alexander Emslie, who has been employed as a truck driver for Wilson & Gault, wholesale liquor dealers, has completed his duties and expects to go to Hartford, Conn., to reside.

Mrs. Fred Anderson returned to the city yesterday from a visit of several days in Boston and New York. During her absence she was with her husband, who is a sailor in the merchant marine.

Miss Rose Levin of Merchant street, who recently completed her first year in a Saratoga, N. Y., art school, arrived in the city to-day from Albany, N. Y., where she has been visiting friends. She was accompanied from Burlington by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Levin.

News is received here that Dr. J. A. Wark, who was commissioned a lieutenant in the army medical corps three months ago, has arrived safely in England. Lieutenant Wark gave up his practice and resigned his office as city physician last April and proceeded to Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., to report for duty.

NOW HOLD $10,511.25.

Barre School Children Are Heavy Purchasers in Thrift and War Stamps.

The U. S. thrift and war savings stamp holdings of the children in the Barre public schools now amount to $10,511.25, and the number holding the stamps is 2,092. This is the last report to be made for a time, as the schools close this week. It is expected, however, that the children will continue their purchases during the summer vacation and that when the schools reopen next September it will be found that a sizeable addition has been made. It is probable that some arrangement will be made so that the children may make their reports to teachers remaining in the city during the summer. The present report is as follows:

	Amount	No. holding
Brook street	$898.00	230
Ward v.	429.75	141
Ayers street	725.75	117
Matheson	2,716.80	439
Lincoln	1,784.00	224
Summer street	417.00	111
North Barre	1,137.25	250
Spending	$66.00	180
	$8,876.35	1,692
High school	1,635.00	400

WILLIAMSTOWN

The ladies' missionary society of the Congregational church will meet with Mrs. Leon McAllister on Wednesday, June 19, at 2:30 p. m. Subject, "Schools and Colleges of the South." All ladies are welcome to these meetings.

Special meeting of the Odd Fellows' lodge next Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock sharp.

The baccalaureate sermon to the members of the class of 1918, Williamstown high school, was delivered in the Methodist church last Sunday evening by the pastor, Rev. John Robinson. The text was a saying of St. Paul, "Forget the things that are behind and look at the things that are before, I press forward, etc." In plain incisive words, the speaker urged the necessity of not wasting time and thought on past opportunities and mistakes, but with singleness of purpose to have a definite aim in life and then to strive with all our might to achieve the goal sought. Two selections by the ladies' quartet were worthy of high praise, one "Some Blessed Day," being sung at the opening of the service, and the other beginning, "Sweetly and Tenderly, Jesus is Calling," at the close of the service.

Ira B. Wright, who has been at work in New York state for several months, returned last week and will move his family to Ilion in that state within a short time. Three members of his family are now living there, a son, Leland, and two daughters, Marion and Hazel.

Walter J. Chynoweth is home from Cornell university for an indefinite stay, and is helping his father in the work of the farm.

Mrs. Laura Ainsworth and niece, Miss Mary Waterman, returned last week from a stay of some weeks in Claremont, N. H.

his home here and returned to Chelsea and to the June term of county court yesterday. Other members of the party going to the county seat were petit jurors, James K. Pirie, Glen F. McAllister and Clyde E. McAllister.

Miss Emma Camp has finished her engagement with Mrs. Ainsworth and is back in her rooms at Mrs. Mary Staples'.

A new musical club, called the "Kid Orchestra," has been formed, and played very acceptably at prize speaking last evening. It is composed of the following members: Leader and cornet, Warren Waldo, violin, Leon Wilfore, piano, Robert Kynoch, and drums, Howell Seaver.

Schools in town are to close this week. Examinations for high school were held not long ago in all the schools and it is thought there will be a goodly number to take up advanced work next year.
